Wright Drilling & Exploration Appoints Scott M. Casper as President

Choctaw Casino Resort Private Penthouse Suite, Durant, OK – Wright Drilling & Exploration, Inc. appointed Scott M. Casper to President during their private Christmas Party Event at Choctaw Casino & Resort on December 16th. Casper, a leader with more than two decades of executive experience, takes the helm of one of Texas’ fastest growing oil and gas companies, which he helped build since day one.

During the company’s announcements by Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Michael W. Wright, Casper was presented a huge gift-wrapped version of his new business card with his new title as President, as well as a large box of his actual new business cards.

“I’m proud to be an integral part of Wright Drilling and Exploration and expect us to continue making our partners good returns from our projects,” Casper said in a statement. “We’re continuously improving our business plan which should continue to increase our partners’ success rate and help build their legacies.”
